In some cases, identification will be requested for those individuals who are already customers prior to the effective date of the customer identification requirements because original documentation was not obtained with the origination of the loan, or Centennial Lending is unable to form a reasonable belief that we know the true identity of the existing customer. In all cases protection of our customer's identity and confidentiality is Centennial Lending's pledge to you.

What this means for you: When you apply for a loan, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning creditor is:

Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center 600 Pennsylvania Ave NW Washington, DC 20580 (877) 382-4357

Alimony, child support or separate maintenance income need not be revealed if you do not wish to have it considered in determining your creditworthiness.
